Get Quilted by Kerrits

Stylish, functional jacket goes easily from barn to town.

At Kerrits, equestrian performance apparel is often called on to perform double duty, working hard in the barn while still looking great for everyday life activities. The solution this winter is the Shoe-In Quilted Jacket, a feminine silhouette styled in a subtle horseshoe-quilted pattern – it's one jacket that's as appropriate for city strolls as it is for barn chore duty.

"Our horseshoe quilt is made exclusively for Kerrits," says company founder Kerri Kent. "It's a subtle statement about your equestrian passions and, more importantly for us riders, it's actually designed to perform in tough winter riding conditions."

The jacket is beautifully constructed and fitted through the waist with a dropped tail for full coverage over tights and breeches. Back snaps and two-way front zipper provide extra freedom through the hip while riding or driving. Sloped pockets add to the slimming shape, while an elastic band in back enhances the feminine fit.

The Shoe-In Jacket is completely windproof and filled with polyloft insulation for lightweight warmth. An extra high collar keeps out the chill, and longer sleeves provide full coverage throughout a ride. A removable hood gives snug weather protection and may be zipped off for a classic look. The nylon liner ensures the jacket slips on easily over fleece and other midlayers.
